

Shigeki Terashi
*Executive Vice President,
Member of the Board of Directors
Toyota Motor Corporation*

- Secretary general, Strategic Top Executive Meeting Office
- Chief officer, Corporate Planning Division
- Chief officer, Information Security Management Department
- Chief officer, Research Division
- Chief officer, BR Connected Strategy and Planning Department

Shigeki Terashi was born February 16, 1955. He graduated from Kobe University with a master's degree in engineering in March 1980 and joined Toyota Motor Corporation (TMC) in April the same year.

Mr. Terashi was seconded to Toyota Technical Center, U.S.A., Inc. (TTC) in October 2000. In January 2005, he was appointed executive chief engineer of Toyota Development Center 1 at TMC. In June 2008, he became a managing officer of TMC and executive vice president of Toyota Motor Engineering & Manufacturing North America, Inc. (TEMA, formerly TTC). In May 2011, he was made president & COO of TEMA. In April 2012, he was appointed chief officer of TMC's North America Operations Group, president & COO of Toyota Motor North America, Inc., and president & CEO of TEMA. In April 2013, he became a TMC senior managing officer, and was appointed chief officer of the Corporate Planning Division, Research Division, Environmental Affairs Division, Product & Business Planning Division, and Design Quality Innovation Division. In June the same year, he was made a member of the board of directors. In April 2014, he was appointed secretary general of the Strategic Top Executive Meeting Office, and in April 2015, became chief officer of the BR Connected Strategy and Planning Department. And in June 2015, Mr. Terashi became an executive vice president and a member of the board of directors and chief officer of the Information Security Management Department.